TRUSTEE'S SALE.
Whereas, George W. Woodfin and Martha M. A. Woodfin, his wife, by their certain deed of trust dated the twenty-seventh day of February, 1891, and recorded in the recorder's office of Bollinger County, Missouri, the 13th day of March, 1891, in book 21, at page 462, conveyed to Charles A. Sander, trustee, the following described real estate, lying and being in the county of Bollinger and State of Missouri, to secure the payment of the debt in the said deed of trust described, to-wit:

That is to say, all his right, title and interest as heir or devisee in the lands belonging to the estate of his uncle, James G. Woodfin, deceased, and particularly described as follows, viz: The southwest quarter of the southeast quarter, and a part of the southeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section twenty, and the west half of the northeast quarter, and a part of the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section twenty-nine, township twenty-nine, north of range ten east, containing one hundred and eighty-nine & 60-100 acres. And for a more perfect description see deed from George Row and wife to James G. Woodfin, dated March 8th, 1880, and recorded at pages 329 and 330, book "C" of deed records, Bollinger County, Missouri. Also the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of said section twenty-nine, township and range aforesaid. Also the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section twenty-six and the south half of the northeast quarter and the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section twenty-seven, in township twenty-nine, north of range ten east, containing one hundred and sixty acres.

Whereas, It is provided in said deed of trust that in case of failure or refusal of said parties of the first part to pay said debt or the interest thereon, or any part thereof, when the same shall become due and payable according to the true tenor, date and effect of said note, then the whole shall become due and payable, and

Whereas, Said debt has become due and payable according to the true tenor, date and effect of said note and remains unpaid, now

Therefore, I, the undersigned trustee, at the request of the legal holder of said note and by the power in me vested, will, on

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

—Old Hats trimmed over at Mrs. Hall's.

—John Lane returned to St. Louis Sunday.

—Overshirts of all colors and sizes at N. E. Hall's.

—Two supplements to the PRESS this week.

—Children's sailor hats for 20 cts. at Mrs. Hall's.

—Emanuel Manning is clerking for Wm. Proctor.

—For first class cigars, go to the barber-shop, Lutesville.

—WSTED--A Democratic candidate for the office of Public Administrator.

—A good baking powder at Drum's for only ten cts. lb.

—The Fourth will be celebrated here in the good old fashioned way.

—Bring your bacon, wool and lard to Drum's and get the best price.

—Ladies, we cordially invite you to examine our large stock of summer millinery. Prices surprisingly low for this month.

—Come along with the many who are daily profiting by this great sale. We positively mean to save you money. S. V. JACQUES.

—John R. Welch has bought a half interest in A. G. O'Neal's feather renovator.

—The Bollinger County Bank buys county warrants and good notes.

—Gents', Boys' and Children's summer hats at Drum's by the wholesale.

—The "Sunflower Entertainment" and ice cream supper was a grand success.

—Five pounds of good Rio coffee for one dollar at Drums'.

—E. J. Cavaness left to day for Illinois to visit the scenes of his childhood.

—Boys, young men and old men, Drum's is the place to get your summer hats.

—If you want to be surprised go to A. Baer's and see how goods are slaughtered!

—Large hats at Mrs. Hall's—5, 10, 15 and 25 cts. Strawberry pickers should call early.

—The official statement of the Bollinger County Bank is published in to-day's paper.

—If you want to buy cheap goods Drum has them; but he has better also, and can suit everyone.

—J. W. Drum, who has been attending the State University at Columbia, has returned home.

—Gentlemen, Drum's is the place to buy your summer coats and vests. He has just received a large supply.

—At A. Baer's is the place where you can save the dollars and cents when you want to buy goods.

—The fact that Mrs. Hall sold fifty hats in one day is proof that she is still in the lead with large sales and cheap goods.

—Mrs. V. Burks and James Van Devort of Lutesville went to Jackson Monday, and were united in marriage.

—Black lawns, white lawns, figured lawns, white dress goods, black and fancy colored satins, all at Drum's at prices to suit everyone.

—W. A. Leofler went to California Saturday to be present at the commencement exercises of the high school at that place.

—The Milwaukee Harvesting Co. is in the field with some greatly improved machinery this year. A. Bohnsack is their agent at this place.

—R. M. Finney, an attorney-at-law of Kennett, spent a few days with his mother and other relatives in this place, last week.

—Those lovely millinery goods which Miss Rosa Fischer is disposing of at such low prices are the talk of the town—the sensation of the season: Go and see them.

—Hon. Moses Whybark went to Cape Girardeau Tuesday to be present at the commencement exercises of the State Normal School.

—A. Bohnsack is agent for all kinds of grain and grass cutting machinery manufactured by the Milwaukee Harvesting Company.

—The time for the Democratic primary election comes on apace, and the candidate who would be successful should be on the move.

—Hon. Robert Drum is in Ripley county this week in the interest of his candidacy for the State Senate. He only likes one vote (counting this county for him, which it is almost to a man) of having enough to give him the nomination on first ballot, and he will likely get the Ripley county delegation.

—If there is going to be an observance of "the day we celebrate" it is time our people were beginning to talk the matter up.

—Dr. Witmer says that a fine, bright-eyed young Democrat made his appearance at the residence of Wm. M. Morgan Monday.

—You can purchase from Dr. Jacques, Lutesville, sufficient wall paper to paper a room 17 ft. square and 9 ft. high, as low as $1.50. This includes the border under the ceiling.

—Erich Sander has the ground floor of his building almost completed, and will likely move what stock he has on hand into the same the first of next week.

—Oh, my! did you ever see such a large stock of nice dress goods as Drum has got to select from? He has goods to suit everyone. You can get a nice calico dress for only 5 cents per yard.

—Philip Schriener of Appleton, Cape county, has purchased A. H. Bowenkamp's farm two and one half miles east of Marble Hill. Mr. B. will move to St. Louis.

—Mrs. Jacques, Lutesville, will give away a nice present with every $2.50 hat bought of her before July 4. New goods arriving constantly. call and be convinced of the good bargain she has for you.

—Five hundred large sized posters advertising their business were printed in this office for Moore & Holmes, photographers, last week. Messrs. Moore and Holmes are gentlemen and are proficient in photography.

—My! my! What a pile of Drygoods that man Drum has in his big store! I don't see what he does with them. But they say he sells them, because he sells cheaper than anybody else in the county.

—A. Baer makes use of some of our advertising space this week, and in a 3 column advertisement elsewhere in this issue he tells you of "bargains unheard of." This gentleman is successor to W. E. Rockwell, and his store can be found on the ground floor of the Masonic building, Marble Hill.

—We desire to call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Sample & Kinder, which occupies a full page of one of the supplements folded in this issue. This firm has the reputation of always doing just what they promise, and if you intend to purchase anything in their line their enterprise and long standing certainly merits at least a trial.

—Ladies and Gentlemen, you can get shoes at Drum's for less money than at any other place in Bollinger Co.—Why? Because he carries the largest and best selected stock in the county, he pays cash for all his goods, which enables him to undersell anybody else.

—Rev. W. H. Roberts came down from St. Louis, where he now resides, and preached his farewell sermon to a good sized audience Sunday evening, taking for his subject "sanctification", which he handled in his usual logical way. Before leaving Monday morning he called at the Press office and expressed his regrets that circumstances forced him to part with friends here; spoke in highly complimentary terms of the people of Marble Hill and Lutesville, and with a hearty grasp of the hand bid the Press force good-bye. Success to him.
